DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-34, Group I, drawn to semiconductor device, classified in class 257, subclass 782.
 - II. Claims 35-59, Group II, drawn to method of making, classified in class 438, subclass 455.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case other method can be used to form the semiconductor device including: forming noble metal alloy on a first substrate and forming oxide affinity material on a second substrate; then two substrates are bonded together through the noble metal layer and oxide affinity material by heat or conductive adhesive.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated, is proper.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Art Unit: 2814

Group IA, claims 1-17, 33 and 34, directed to semiconductor device having two substrates bonded together through a bonding structure having a noble metal alloyed with an oxide affinity material on one substrate and silicon on the other substrate, as shown in Figs. 3 and 6.

Group IB, claims 18-32, directed to semiconductor device having two substrates bonded together through a bonding structure having a noble metal layer, an oxide affinity material, and a noble metal layer formed on the oxide affinity material on one substrate and silicon on the other substrate, as shown in Figs. 9 and 12.

Group IIA, claims 35-46 and 55-59, directed to method of making wherein the bonding structure is formed by co-sputtering the noble metal and oxide affinity material.

Group IIB, claims 47-54, directed to method of making wherein the bonding structure is formed by depositing a noble metal layer on a first substrate, an oxide affinity material on the noble metal layer and a noble metal layer on the oxide affinity material.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there is no generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 2814

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Anh D. Mai whose telephone number is (571) 272-1710. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00AM-5:00PM.
